Baron Fava Will Sail on Saturday.

THE PRESIDENT'S PREPARATIONS.

Serious Conflict of Strikers and Sheriffs.

A Wild Mob of Huns and Slaves in Pennsylvania.

London Press Comments.

By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, April 2.—The Telegraph says: "It could scarcely appear practical to Italy to be told it is uncertain whether the murdered men were Italians while they were lynched and lynching palliated on the ground that they were members of an Italian secret society. The contrast between the savage precipitancy of the slayers, the complacency of the municipal authorities at New Orleans and the deliberate skepticism of Blaine, might well have moved a less high spirited nation than Italy to resolute measures. We are deeply grieved to declare that the opinion of the civilized world ranges itself against America. It is scarcely wise for the American papers to bluster. The Italian navy is in a condition of the highest efficiency. The hope of a speedy, equitable adjustment of this perilous quarrel lies with the vast body of upright, honorable feeling prevailing in the Republic. There is no prospect that King Humbert will abate his just demands."

The Standard says: "The Marquis Di Rudini has every right to insist that the sins of the Mafia have nothing to do with the case. President Harrison's Ministers appear to have thought that a formal expression of regret would suffice, but Italy is the last country from which such tame compliance could be expected. Still, there is no occasion for alarm. Abundance of reasons exist—financial, political and strategical—why Italy should not hurl herself against America. Baron Fava's ultimatum is designed to bring home to the federal authorities the unsatisfactory character of their attitude. It is unfortunate that President Harrison's advisers that they are compelled to suffer for errors for which they are not primarily responsible. King Humbert is doing service to the world at large in thus drawing attention to the defect in the American constitution."

The Chronicle says: "Baron Fava is not entitled to fix the day and hour of redress. If he can disregard the American constitution he must not ignore American geography, but must allow reasonable time for inquiries. We can scarcely believe the Washington government will acquiesce in the view that it is important to deal with the question, especially as the party in power successfully asserted the authority of the Union over all States at the time of the civil war, and is pledged to make the federal power supreme on all international questions. It is plausible to believe that Marquis Di Rudini is yielding to popular clamor. The rupture is regrettable, though war unlikely. But what if America should reply to Baron Fava's malice by prohibiting Italian immigration?"

THE ITALIAN PREMIER'S MESSAGE.

ROME, April 2.—Marquis Di Rudini, the Italian Premier, to-day sent another cable message to the United States on the subject of the New Orleans trouble, addressed to Marquis Imperiali Di Francivill, Secretary of the Italian Legation at Washington, to be handed to Secretary Blaine. The message is in reply to Blaine's last note. Di Rudini says Italy has asked nothing but the prompt institution of regular judicial proceedings against the guilty parties at New Orleans. He adds that it would have been absurd to claim punishment for the offenders without the guarantees afforded by regular trial. The diplomatic incident, the Marquis says, can only be considered closed when the Federal government has declared in precise terms, upon whose prosecutions will be commenced. In the meantime, the Italian government takes cognizance of the Federal government's declaration, acknowledging the fact that compensation is due to families of the victims by virtue of a treaty existing between the two countries.

ARTICLE XXI.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The Post says: "Article 21 of the treaty between the United States and Italy allows six months to merchants in ports of each country and one year to dwellers in the interior to arrange their affairs. All occupants of unfortified towns whose occupations are for the common subsistence and benefit of mankind shall not be molested, and whatever may be taken from them for the use of belligerents shall be paid for at a reasonable price. This article, which is generally not known to exist, especially stipulates that its provisions shall be sacredly observed in war."

THE WAR CLOUD WANING.

ROME, April 2.—It is learned from reliable sources that United States Minister Foster has done much to pacify the Italian government and has won over to his way of thinking other Ministers, several of whom are trying to induce the Italian Premier, Marquis Di Rudini, to be less hasty. The idea of war is scouted in diplomatic circles. Even Fava's withdrawal is not definitely decided upon. It is said that even if Fava is withdrawn, it is done only as the most forcible protest known in diplomacy, and not as a forerunner of a conflict between the United States and Italy. The Italian Cabinet Ministers are in receipt of a large number of cablegrams and letters from prominent Italians of New York, urging moderation.

New York, April 2.—The editor of the Eco D'Italia has received a dispatch from Fava, stating he will sail for home on Saturday.

SIMPLY BELIEVED.

WILMINGTON (Del.), April 2.—Ex-Secretary of State Bayard treats the Italian matter lightly. He said if Baron Fava had been recalled, it was likely he had done something to displease his government, and that he had simply been relieved. This is indicated by his leaving a secretary in charge of the legation. "It is absurd," said Mr. Bayard, "to regard the recall of the Minister or the suspension of diplomatic relations as evidence of war."

Baron Fava.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Baron Fava is one of the unluckiest of men. Ten or fifteen years ago he was a rich Italian nobleman with large estates and a handsome income. He also had a handsome wife, to whom, unfortunately for the Baron, the estates belonged. Fava is an eccentric and not always amiable person, and after a stormy matrimonial career, he and his wife separated.

Mme. Fava disappeared, taking with her all of her husband's income, save his salary from the Italian government. She is now living in Paris in fine style. Their son, an accomplished civil engineer, who is winning fame and fortune in his profession in this city, takes his mother's part and does not speak to his father.

President's Preparations.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—That the President does not believe the Italian embargo will take a serious turn is evidenced by the fact that he is making arrangements for his trip south and west during the present month. He this morning approved the itinerary, covering four weeks beginning April 16th, with visits made to the principal cities of Virginia, Georgia, Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, California and probably Washington. New Orleans is not included in the route. The party will number about ten persons.

Three Mexicans Killed.

WEATHERFORD (Tex.), April 2.—News has reached here of the killing of three Mexicans at Ranger, on the Texas & Pacific Railway. A white man and a Mexican engaged in an altercation, and the Mexican tried to use his knife, when the white man shot him. Other Mexicans engaged in an attack and two more were killed.

Fighting Strikers Killed.

By Associated Press.

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—A desperate battle is reported between strikers and armed guards at Moorewood this morning at 3 o'clock. Three or four hundred strikers appropriated the works of the H. C. Frick Coke Company and began to batter down the gates. When ordered to desist they fired upon the deputy Sheriffs, wounding several. The latter replied with Remingtons and killed seven rioters instantly, while many were wounded. The guards fired two volleys before the rioters retreated. Previous to the raid the rioters cut the telephone and telegraph wires.

Private dispatches from Greensburg say eleven men were killed and twenty-seven wounded in the Moorewood riot this morning. The dead miners are all foreigners.

The Governor has ordered the Tenth Regiment to aid the Sheriff of Westmoreland county in quelling the trouble in the coke regions. The Eighteenth Regiment of this city has been ordered to hold itself in readiness.

H. C. Frick, owner of the Moorewood plant was seen at his office this morning and said: "We placed our men and property in the hands of lawful authorities for protection. The Sheriff in the Moorewood case has done his duty, and the Governor is doing his. This is no quarrel about wages, only whether our men working are to be shot down at midnight and our property destroyed by rioters. The authorities must settle this and we will know whether mobs or law is to rule."

At noon a train left Greensburg filled with deputies, armed and prepared for a long siege.

MOUNT PLEASANT (Pa.), April 2.—At 2:45 this morning a mob of five hundred men began rioting the Standard works. They destroyed some of the company's property and cut the telegraph lines so no warning could be sent to the people at Moorewood. About three o'clock the party marched to Moorewood.

In the meanwhile the wires were hurriedly repaired and word was sent to Moorewood that the strikers would attack the works in three places and had well laid plans to destroy the whole plant. Deputy Sheriffs were soon in readiness, to receive the attack. The men divided into three parties, Capt. Lauer having charge of a party placed behind the big gates of the barn and stable enclosure. As the rioters passed the company's store they raided it and then marched to the barn and attempted to break down the gates. They succeeded in doing this, and as they entered Captain Lauer called out to them to halt or he would fire upon them. Their answer was to fire a rattling volley in the direction of the deputies, none of whom were seriously injured. Capt. Lauer then gave the order to fire. Two volleys were fired before the mob broke and ran. Eleven men fell dead in the road, and the wounded are estimated as high as twenty-seven.

The deputies who took part in the riot were experienced men armed to the teeth.

Last night Superintendent Pickard told them the raid was contemplated on the works, and presented each man with a Winchester.

"I have promised protection," he said, "to our men and I must give it to them. When the raiders come obey me. Fire the first shot into the air, and if the raiders do not retreat fire the second shot, and keep on firing while you have ammunition. Protect the company's property, protect the men at work and protect your own lives. The man in my employ who runs I will shoot dead on the spot. Any man who is not willing to accept my terms will please drop into the rear and I will send them home under guard."

"Is everybody satisfied?" asked the Superintendent.

"Yes yes!" rang out all along the line.

Each man was supplied with twenty cartridges, and under command of the superintendent marched to a convenient point. All night long the strikers were preparing for the raid. Delegations headed by a drum corps marched to and fro to the places of rendezvous. An occasional pistol shot could be heard in the district; now and then rockets flashed into the air, and from an adjoining hill-top swinging lights could be seen. There were three parties of strikers. One came from Stonyville, and another from Moorehead, and the third from the mines in the neighborhood. They were very noisy, cheering and shouting and beating drums as they came along.

The three parties met and decided to make the march on the works. Some of the strikers say to-day they had no intention of doing any damage, but simply marched to the works to intimidate those at work.

The dead this morning were carried into the company's store at Moorewood. The strikers demanded the bodies of the victims, but were refused, and the place is now surrounded by an armed mob of over 2,000 men, who say they will burn everything on the premises unless the dead bodies are given up. The feeling is very bitter among the workmen, who denounce the action of the deputies in no uncertain terms.

The Slaves and Huns are wild. All over the region the most intense excitement prevails. Great crowds are coming in on every train. The highways are thickly peopled and it is openly declared by the strikers that they will have revenge for their companions.

They have transferred their attention from the plants to the deputies, whom they vow they will kill. They say at the same time the works will surely be razed.

Word has been passed to the strikers all over the region that the shooting was without provocation and that no violence was offered, and their anathemas on bearing these reports are deep and strong.

Peter Wise, Master Workman of the District, James McBride, Secretary, and James Penna, Vice-President of the United Mine Workers of America, came here this morning and visited the scene of the shooting and held conferences with several of the men. It is said they secured the names of the deputies and have sworn out warrants for the arrest of all of them, including Captain Lauer, who was in command, on a charge of murder. They were served this afternoon. They gave bail at once. General Manager Bynch of the Frick Company, and Superintendent Rumsey of the Moorewood plant are accessories before the fact.

The physicians say forty strikers are wounded, many of them mortally. The excitement is increasing and the prospect of another outbreak is growing every hour. Reports that a second attack took place, in which four more were killed, is pronounced untrue, but another raid is expected at any time.

The Superintendent claims that he ordered the mob to halt three times, and was answered with three shots. After another command half of the guards were ordered to fire, and a deadly volley was poured into the crowd. The fire was returned hotly, but the aim was poor.

Moorewood, April 1.—The killed are Paul Dolan, Walentine Zeidel, James Brache, Jacob Shukokey, John Fudor, Antonio Rist, Cresco Biners, all Slaves, Poles or Italians. All were shot in the head, neck or breast. Fifteen were wounded, but the names are not yet obtained. None of the dead were naturalized.

LATER.

It is said there were twenty-five wounded. This story has not yet been confirmed, although Frick's information is that eleven rioters were killed, altogether. The 10th regiment, N. G. P. arrived, and will go to the scene of the disturbance to-night. The 15th regiment is under arms awaiting further orders.

GREENSBURG (Pa.), April 2.—A special says at nine o'clock another attack was attempted and three more were killed.

THE GOVERNOR ACTS.

HARRISBURG (Pa.), April 2.—Governor Pattison summoned his cabinet this morning to consider the situation in the western coke regions. Telegrams were received from Sheriff Clawson and others of Westmoreland county, telling of the riots and asking for aid from militia at once. The Governor ordered the 10th regiment to proceed at once to Mount Pleasant, and the 18th regiment under arms, to await further orders.

No Governor Chosen.

By Associated Press.

PROVIDENCE (R. I.), April 2.—The election returns at 1 o'clock make it certain that there has been no choice by the people for any officer upon the general ticket. The Republicans carried a sufficient number of towns to give them the 55 votes necessary on a joint ballot. The total vote for Governor stands: Burton (Nationalist) 384, Davis (Dem.) 22,449, Land (Rep.) 21,895, Larris (Pro.) 1,829.

The next General Assembly stands: Senate, 21 Republicans, 9 Democrats, 6 to be chosen; House, 34 Republicans, 23 Democrats, 19 to be chosen.

Hinsdale (N. Y.), April 2.—Two trains on the Erie road collided this morning near Hinsdale, N. Y. Three trainmen were killed.

Two Brothers Hanged.

By Associated Press.

SOMERSET (Pa.), April 2.—The Nicely brothers, Joseph and David, were hanged this afternoon. Both died protesting their innocence. Death resulted from strangulation. The case was an extraordinary one. On the evening of February 27, 1889, the house of David Umberger was entered by two masked men, who killed him in the presence of his family and robbed him of between sixteen and twenty thousand dollars in cash. They escaped, but suspicion was directed toward the Nicelys, who belonged to a wealthy Dunkard family.

In spite of a fierce legal fight, they were convicted on strong circumstantial evidence at the demand of popular opinion. Later, the case was complicated by the sworn confession of John Reach, that he and a man named Miller committed the crime. The Board of Pardons, however, declined to interfere. The brothers made two sensational attempts to escape, getting away once, but were re-captured.

Blaine is Busy.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Secretary Blaine transacted routine business as if there was nothing new in the Italian situation. Baron Fava has not yet made application for his passport, nor has the Marquis Impiccioli acknowledged the receipt of Blaine's letter sent him yesterday evening. Among the first callers on the Secretary, were the Minister and Sir Charles Tupper of Canada, who talked with the Secretary an hour, presumably about the seal fisheries, reciprocity and other matters foremost in the minds of the Canadians.

PRACTICAL TESTS.

An Astonishing Offer—Some of the Replies.

The San Francisco papers of recent date contained the following offer:—"As an evidence of the ability of Joy's Vegetable Sanaparilla to prevent sick headaches, we will give to the first twelve responsible persons who will apply at our office a bottle free if they will agree that after they have been cured that they will admit the fact over their signatures."

This offer so startlingly asserted the efficiency of the remedy that many accepted, and the letters of the parties, nearly all of whom responded, are probably the most convincing attestations that any remedy ever received. The following is a sample of those received:

"I have been subject to bilious headaches and constipation for several years past; in fact, have been compelled to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache and dull, mean feeling. I have taken that bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sanaparilla, and have derived great benefit from it, and intend continuing it. After my own experience I can heartily advise those troubled with biliousness and constipation to try it. Yours, CHAS. E. FINE, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco."

The Carson Appeal has entered on volume 38. It is by far the best paper published in Carson, for it, once in a while, expresses an opinion.

The publisher says: "We regret to say that it is not as good a paper as the city ought to have, but it is fully as good as the town seems willing to support. The Appeal has always been a Republican paper and will continue to be so; but, as it announced recently, it will not in future support men for office with known criminal records. We have stated that we will use our best endeavors to drive the criminal class out of politics in this State. Some have told us that this cannot be done, as they are too strongly entrenched. With the co-operation of the people and the Australian ballot we see nothing in the way of doing it. The work may not be exactly a picnic, but we believe there are enough honest voters left in the country to accomplish the result."

The GAZETTE has been working for two years or more to accomplish the same thing, but it has had no help from any paper in the State, and we are glad to receive the Appeal into the ranks of honest and fearless journalism. The milk and water press of the State, controlled by the so-called powers, have done more to degrade honest manhood and push the State into the rut that she is in than all the other influences combined, and it can do more to make it respectable than any other force, if it will. The GAZETTE will do its share, and we take it from the editorial declaration made in yesterday morning's Appeal that that paper will also stand in.

Public Parks.

If we must have public parks why put them so close together? Would it not be better to look at the matter in a business light and wait a year before making a purchase of ground that we may see how things shape themselves. If, for instance, the piece of ground is bought in front of the Riverside Hotel, and another in Powning's Addition—less than a half a mile apart—and the town in a few years doubles in population, then we shall want a park in the western addition, and would it not be better, and give better satisfaction to the people to buy twenty or forty acres somewhere near town and improve it in such a way that half the town could visit the park on Sundays or any other day and get in. A block of ground will be simply an aggravation—not half big enough and wholly unfit for park purposes. As it is now a three minutes' drive takes one into the country, so to speak, where it is all park, and we think the people would be better satisfied with a piece of land big enough to make something of, than a little cramped up block of land. The Commissioners will do well to consider the needs of the town before they rush headlong into issuing bonds to buy something they do not want simply because five men constituting the Washoe delegation asked that the town be authorized to issue bonds for the purchase of park property. Do not throw the money away, gentlemen, for the people will be better satisfied if you do not make any purchase at all, and more particularly if you buy property that is of no use to the town for park purposes.

In a recent lecture at Ventura by Mrs. Clara Hoffman the statement was made that the school girls in Sacramento are in the habit of visiting saloons and becoming inebriated. An investigation has proved that a blacksmith at the capital told a minister that a large number of girls of a questionable character visited a certain saloon every day. The story spread until the school girls were charged with the impropriety. The blacksmith has published an account of his part of the scandal, and Mrs. Hoffman is to be legally restrained from repeating the slander. The fruits of gossip are very bitter.

"SHERMAN'S Last Speech" is described in a letter from New York published in the Argonaut of April 6th. The speech was delivered at the New York Press Club banquet to Henry M. Stanley, and created something of a sensation.

A POKER-PLAYING CAT.

The Wonderful Intelligence of a Gambler's Feline Pet.

In a high-toned gambling-house at Wichita, Kan., a correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat was lately introduced to a sagacious cat that for the past few years has proved a veritable bonanza to his master. The animal belongs to a professional gambler known from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and goes by the euphonious name of Pete.

For centuries monkeys have made not only their own living but have furnished many a meal and countless nights of good lodging, to say nothing about the incidents, for the swartly sons of sunny Dagoland, but it has hardly been suspected that a cat could take the place of the monkey.

Pete plays cards, or at least takes such part in a poker game as entitles him to a rake off. When he was young, obscure and a waif, the gambler, of whom he is now the constant companion, and who would as soon be without his wad as without his talisman—for as such he regards his pet—found him in a gutter in San Francisco and adopted him. That was eight years ago.

The superstitious master, like such distinguished poker players as the King of the Sandwich Islands, had an abiding faith in the efficacy of stroking a cat's tail as a means of changing luck, and for this purpose Pete was a constant visitor to the gambling houses frequented by the sport. Early in his business career Pete learned what some men never have sense enough to understand, and that is, that it pays to be both obliging and pleasant, and he cherishes many a warm soul by the amusing way he has of straightening up the "down-down" hands.

He invariably sits on the corner of the table, and when it comes to a "show down" and the chips are raked in, Pete then commences to get in his work for himself and his master. He extends his tail to the loser, who will, if he is a genuine gambler, invariably take hold of it and shake it. At the conclusion of this ceremony Pete reaches out his paw, picks out a red chip if a white one is not handy, starts to the bank and gets it cashed and then returns to his master with the "tin."

By this Napoleonic method of financing Pete usually manages to rake in from one dollar to three dollars a night, and he has enough to accumulate to keep him in indolence and luxury during the rest of his natural life. While not depraved, Pete is fond of his beer and generally disposes of a couple of glasses during a night's session.

WOMEN AND MARRIAGE.

Some of the Things Which Deter Them from Entering Such a State.

There are three general causes which bring marriage into disfavor (with women): philanthropy, higher education and self analysis, writes Mrs. Kate Gannett Wells in the North American Review. The first has been a powerful factor in its subtle influence against marriage. The mental atmosphere is permeated with the idea of responsibility for another's happiness. Woman now feels herself accountable for the welfare of humanity, and through the exercise of that responsibility has found occupation for mind and heart, which has prevented absorption in her own affairs.

Higher education has affected marriage, inasmuch as it has opened new avenues of employment for women, has fortified them for life as a whole, and has led them to regard marriage as an incident. It has given girls a communistic feeling which makes them prefer to teach where there are other teachers rather than to live on a hill-top and read aloud to their parents, or to retire to a farm or a tenement and bake and brew for their husbands. The higher education has separated marriage and motherhood. Almost all women love children, and would gladly use their knowledge for the delight and profit of a family, but they do not want the intervening marriage.

Analysis has advanced from being a method in text-books to the study of one's self. The age is analytic. Once work was so constant that married women did not realize their loneliness or the want of appreciation which befall them. Now society and the middle class have leisure to examine their states of mental solitude, and to see just where husbands are wanting.

A Pathetic Story.

"I have heard and read many pathetic stories," said Senator Hoar to a Washington Star reporter recently, "but none of them ever awoke so much sad sympathy as one which Prof. Gallaudet related the other day. The professor has a favorite pupil, a little deaf mute boy who is exceptionally bright. Mr. Gallaudet asked him if he knew the story of George Washington and the cherry tree. With his nimble fingers the little one said he did, and then he proceeded to repeat it. The noiseless gesticulations continued until the boy had informed the professor of the elder Washington's discovery of the mutilated tree and of his quest for the mutilator. 'When George's father asked him who hacked his favorite cherry tree,' signaled the voiceless child, 'George put his hatchet in his left hand.' 'Stop,' interrupted the professor. 'Where do you get your authority for saying he took the hatchet in his left hand?' 'Why,' responded the boy, who knew nothing of speech, 'he needed his right hand to tell his father that he cut the tree.'"

The Queen's New-Year Gifts.

The Queen's New-Year gifts to the poor of Windsor, Holy Trinity and Clewer were distributed in the riding school, Windsor Castle. The gift consisted of beef and coal, the gifts varying from three pounds to seven pounds in weight, according to the number in each family, and the total weight being upward of a ton and a half. The coal weighed over sixty tons and was delivered at the homes of the recipients in quantities of from one to three hundred weight. The total value of the Queen's gifts this year amounted to $200, which included $100 presented to the Royal Clothing Club. During the distribution, which took place in the presence of the clergy and laity of the three parishes, the bells of St. John's Church rang out merry peals.

The Druggists

In Lowell, Mass., agree in saying that they sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers. For instance: F. C. Goodale; I sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers.

A. W. Dows & Co.; Hood's takes the lead of all other Sarsaparillas.

C. F. BRANCHARD: We sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of any similar.

MARSTON & SHAW: With us the sale of Hood's is 9 to 1 of any other kind.

F. & E. RILEY & Co.; Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines.

CARLTON & HOWEY: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines we have. Its sale increases every year.

F. P. MOODY: We sell twice as much of Hood's Sarsaparilla as of anything similar.

G. A. SWAN: Hood's is the most popular Sarsaparilla of the day.

THIRTY OTHER DRUGGISTS speak similarly. This popularity at home, where Hood's Sarsaparilla and its proprietors have been known for many years, could not continue if the medicine did not possess merit. And these facts should certainly convince people in other sections of the country that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good, reliable medicine.

Its Excellent Qualities. Commend to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is pleasant to the eye, and to the taste, and by gentle action on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectively, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

How to Get Rid of Malaria. Who has not suffered from malaria? We all had it when we ran races at school—we have it when we overwork ourselves at any age. It comes on, as everybody knows, suddenly. By using one of Alcock's Porous Plasters it goes away nearly as quickly. F. Rosener of No 556 West 58th street, New York, says: "It is with pleasure I write these lines in testimony to the powers of Alcock's Porous Plasters. I have been somewhat annoyed with serious pains in my sides, for which several medicines have been prescribed, but to no avail, and through the advice of a friend I tried two Alcock's Porous Plasters, and the relief they have given me is both satisfactory and astonishing. To any one annoyed with pains these plasters are a certain remedy."

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and now, on my third bottle, am able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of lung troubles; was given up by doctors; am now a host of health. Try it. Sample bottles free at Finner's drug store."

A Sure Cure for Piles. Itching Piles are known by moisture, like perspiration causing intense itching when warm. AN EARLY LOCATION.

The Sultan Mine in Big Creek Mining District, south of Austin.

In the early '80's the mining excitement in Nevada drew largely upon California; and people crossed the Sierras at many points hastening to the new El Dorado. They came from all sections, for Californians were all accustomed to mining and the farming regions furnished a large contingent. Mining claims were then located without limit as to length, with an additional 300 feet to the locator "by right of discovery, with all the dips, spurs and angles, and 300 feet on each side of the said ledge, lode or lead."

In consequence, mining claims usually comprised several thousand feet in length, and as no incorporated companies were then known, sales, when made, were in running feet, extending from the surface to the center of the earth. Sales were frequent, and often for small amounts, and in consequence the recorders and notaries made the most money out of the transfers. Among the early prospectors to go to Reese river was a farmer.

NICK-NAMED "FAP."

Who came from the vicinity of Stockton. He knew nothing of silver ore and hence located claims rather wildly. He formed a partnership with young Kit Carson and in the Big Creek Mining District, south of Austin, they located a bunch of white quartz and named it the Sultan, after a favorite steambot on the Mississippi that plied between St. Louis and New Orleans. They began running a tunnel on the so-called ledge and had frequent assays made, which resulted in big returns, according to the certificates, and also a demand for

FEET IN THE SULTAN.

That extended as far as Stockton. At that time J. M. Patrick was publishing the San Joaquin Republican there, and as it was uphill work for an ultra Democrat in such red hot war times to hold his own against the opposition paper, once edited by Sam Seabough, it was an easy matter for Patrick to get the silver fever, sell the paper, buy Sultan and come to Nevada, all of which was done as rapidly as transfers could be made.

He went direct to Big Creek and found the men at work, and inflated with great expectations. He soon learned that his share, 50 feet, bought at $70 per foot, in a claim of 5,000 feet was an insignificant interest, unless it proved very rich. This checked his ardor not a little, for he had bought without investigation, in the fever of excitement, and in total ignorance of the value of silver mines; however, he consoled himself and determined to find out something of its value. He was doubtful of his richness, now that second sober thoughts returned, and getting choice specimens from various places in the so-called mine, he sent to a distance for an assay. In due time the certificates were returned to him, showing not a trace of gold or silver in any of the samples sent. It was a cruel blow to Patrick's hopes, as well as to the men who were working it, for it was evident that the local assayers had "salted" the returns to keep up the excitement. Patrick did not stop long nor try his luck in other mines; he simply d—d the Sultan and the Sultan too, returned at once to California and resumed his occupation of a publisher on a scale limited by his losses, but improved by the experience bought so dearly.

would be solved by the next Congress, and that we would get close to a free coinage bill, if not absolute. When questioned regarding the outlook for Presidential candidates, he said that if the Democrats thought they stood a chance of electing their candidate without New York, they would throw Cleveland overboard; otherwise, he would most likely be that party's standard-bearer in the next campaign. He said that he did not think Harrison would be the Republican nominee. He remarked that the Farmers' Alliance was likely to become quite a factor in the next campaign, and that it was quite likely that they would wield influence enough to throw the election into the House.

THE BEEF MARKET.

Chicago Sending Men to This Point to Buy Cattle.

Chicago beef buyers are in this market looking over the situation. They are waiting here to see if they can make satisfactory rates with the railroad for transportation out of the country, and if they succeed they will wind up the cattle business of this market in a hurry. With California, Washington, Oregon, British Columbia, Utah and Chicago coming to this State for beef, it should not take long to raise the price a couple of cents per pound. Beef is said to be very scarce East, and we all know that it is in the West, and if feeders do not take advantage of the scarcity and make the butchers pay for what they get they will be foolish.

"Lake's Crossing"

The cut of "Lake's Crossing" published to-day is a very correct and life-like picture of the old Lake House and bridge as it appeared in 1862. The late Mr. Lake may be seen in the foreground talking to an Indian, while other sons and daughters of the plains are rolling about in the sand and dirt the same as they do nowadays.

The "Weekly Gazette."

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE and STOCKMAN is a fine paper. It contains nearly forty columns of the choicest news of the day and over eight columns of advertisements that the patrons of the paper will do well to read. The weekly is the best paper published between San Francisco and Chicago and has the largest circulation.

PERSONALS.

George Avery came down from Verdi this morning.

Hon. H. F. Bartine returned from Washington this morning and went on home to Carson.

Hon. D. V. Johnson and wife returned from California yesterday and passed on eastward to Kiko.

Trenmor Coffin returned from San Francisco this morning, and with his wife who met him here, continued on to Carson.

Mrs. Logan (nee Kelley), the accomplished Carson teacher, arrived from San Francisco this morning and passed on home to Gold Hill.

Nate W. Hoff of the Carson Mint, after a two days' visit in Reno, returned to Carson this morning. His visit was ended quicker than intended by a telegram to return.

A Leg Broken.

Dr. Thoma was called to Wadsworth this morning to give further attention to Jas. Caldwell, who is laid up there with a broken leg. Mr. Caldwell met with the misfortune while wrestling with a mule, which reared and struck his ankle with a front foot. It occurred out in Churchill county where Mr. Caldwell has been engaged in mining. He was formerly Sheriff of Nye county, and his old friends there will sympathize with him in his misfortune for the break is a bad one.

Palace Restaurant.

The popular eating house, as conducted by Jack Godfrey during the past three years, has acquired a reputation for excellent fare that has secured a constant and steady run of patronage. Jack Godfrey is one of the oldest caterers in the State, and his thorough knowledge of the business enables him to serve his patrons well at all times with the best the market affords. Patrons can rest assured of perfect satisfaction at the Palace Restaurant.

Cattle shipments.

L. Brooks shipped four carloads of cattle from Reno this morning to San Francisco.

G. M. Humphrey shipped three carloads of beef cattle to San Francisco to-day.

Sixteen carloads of beef cattle passed through Reno to-day, consigned to Horn & Chapman, San Francisco.
